The bottom of the screen shows a player icon, a health bar, and a gold bar with 110 gold and 150 experience points.

The screenshot displays the Wizard's inventory screen in The Elder Scrolls Online. On the left, there is a character portrait of a young man with curly hair, wearing a red and black robe, with a level indicator of 28/32. Below the portrait are icons for a fist, a sword, and a shield. The main inventory area consists of a 4x10 grid of slots. The slots are filled with various items, including potions, scrolls, and weapons. The items are organized into groups, with some items having a '3' or '6' next to them, indicating their quantity. On the right side of the inventory grid, there is a 'Take All' button. Below the inventory grid, there is a filter bar with tabs for 'Common', 'Wizard', 'Items', 'Passives', and 'Custom'. The 'Common' tab is currently selected. The background of the screen shows a dark, rocky landscape with a red, glowing area on the left.
